

Anja Baker has been a volunteer and staff member at pregnancy help centers across the state. During her time at Mississippi State University, she founded Pregnant on Campus Initiative, assisting student mothers. Anja's role at Her PLAN exists to facilitate collaboration among Mississippi assistance providers and to connect organizations that support pregnant and parenting women and families throughout the state. Anja networks with local assistance providers in Mississippi and supports them as they collaborate to empower women and families through comprehensive medical, social, and material support.
